

ILM Level Three Certificate in Leadership & Management

(Potential grant available from the DESC)

Introduction

The ILM Level 3 Certificate in Leadership and Management develops leaders and managers within the Qualifications Credit Framework. It covers the full range of responsibilities of the first line manager. The programme is suitable for direct entrants to executive management (for example graduates on the fast track) or for those promoted from team leader or supervisor. The content is relevant whether already working at that level or preparing for promotion.

The main purpose of the qualification is to improve performance in key management skills, which for some participants is an end in itself. However, the qualification can also be a stepping stone to future personal development. Achievement of this nationally recognised vocational qualification also makes candidates eligible for Institute of Leadership and Management membership at a grade of Associate Member (AMInstLM).

The full Certificate consists of an induction, 9 learning units, tutorial support, and an assessment process.

The TLC programme delivers the learning modules over 9 days of tutor-led learning (see page two for the schedule) and one day of tutor supported self-learning. The units and the expected learning outcomes are described on page three of this guide.

The programme commences October 2024. Places are limited.

How long will it take?

The Level 3 Certificate will run over a period of 6 months (see timetable on page 2).

The TLC programme is primarily tutor-led, providing a valuable opportunity for work with a peer group. However, some flexibility can be allowed through the use of alternative learning methods. These can also be effective in fitting study around personal and work lives.

Assessment

1. Four assignments providing evidence of learning and application in the workplace, considering your own practice and how it can be developed. The assignments are assessed by TLC.
2. Knowledge assessment (two sets of structured-answer questions).

Programme Costs

The total price for this course will be £1,695 + VAT per person. This price includes the registration fee charged by ILM to attend this programme.

If you are eligible you can request a grant of 30% of the total price from the Department of Education, Sport & Culture. A guidance sheet on how to claim this grant is available from TLC.
